Summary of Previous State Board of Education Discussion and Action

The State Board has previously not acted on this issue.

Summary of Key Issue(s)

The Title I Committee of Practitioners is a mandated advisory committee (Section 1903(b) NCLB Act of 2001) that meets three times yearly. Their primary function is to advise the state education agency on regulations and other issues related to Title I, Improving the Academic Achievement of the Disadvantaged. The members are appointed by the state education agency. They are only reimbursed for necessary expenses to attend meeting.

The Title I Committee of Practitioners membership may not exceed 54 persons and may include, but not be limited to: administrators, agency liaisons, principals, parents, teachers, paraprofessionals, pupil support services, business/labor technology representatives, community-based organizations, private schools, and school board members. On October 22-23, 2003, the Title I Committee of Practitioners met in Sacramento and a total of 15 members attended this meeting. An update of the number of the names of the current members and vacancies will be included in the Last Minute Memorandum.
